Looking Forward

An Enduring Gift

When Chet Fisler joined the Kirk of Kildaire - he saw a young church that had great promise and an opportunity to leave something lasting. A native of Ivanhoe, North Carolina - church was always at the center of his life. When a new job moved him to Pittsburg, Pennsylvania he joined the local Methodist youth group to make some friends. An Episcopalian named Mary Jane also joined the youth group and within weeks knew that she was going to marry Chet. Their family would also be centered around the church - from Westminster Presbyterian in Dayton, Ohio to First Presbyterian in New Bern, North Carolina. Chet had witnessed how endowments in these churches played an important role in spreading the gospel. He took it as his mission to help organize an Endowment Fund at the Kirk. He was leaving something lasting. A way to continue his witness.

A Simple Act

A simple act by one becomes a powerful force when taken by many. Help build the endowment by making a donation, naming the church in your will, or add the church as one of the beneficiaries of your life insurance, savings account, brokerage or retirement account or establish a charitable remainder trust.

The Covenant Circle

At the Kirk

The Kirk of Kildaire Presbyterian Church has established The Covenant Circle to celebrate and encourage those who contribute to the endowment fund through a gift or by making the covenant of remembering the church in their will, or through a charitable remainder trust.

The Covenant Circle meets once a year to hear a report from the Pastor and Endowment Committee on the success of our joint work, the state of the Endowment Fund and our hopes for the future. Circle members hope their witness will encourage others and will share the good news of the opportunity.

Join the Circle

Membership in the Circle simply involves your affirmation that you have provided a gift for the church through a donation, your will or charitable remainder trust in an act of faith for the ways in which this support will sustain the work of Christ.

Help another generation further God's work in the world by giving an enduring gift to Christ's church.
